

Index-Pro

The Stock Market Index Construction, Automation and Maintenance Solution

- Index-Pro is a software solution designed to generate multiple Gulf and Arab stock markets indexes, portfolio benchmarks, diversified and professional market reports and analysis.
- Index-Pro is a must have for leading banks, investment companies, brokerage companies and key media and content providers wishing to establish their own indexes and generate unparalleled market reports.
- Index-Pro is a very flexible solution that can accept multiple business rules of numerous clients and assist each institutional client individually to generate its proprietary analysis, reports and comparative statistical data.
- Leading Professional Associations such as AIMER and best practice consultants call for incorporating benchmarks and indexes into the presentation standards of investment performance. Index-Pro is currently the best tool in the market place to achieve such call.
- The User of Index-Pro can publish custom made reports in both Arabic and English in leading daily, weekly newspapers and magazines in order to enhance the awareness of the public and maximize its visibility and stature in the business community.
- Index-Pro is engineered to function on multiple data bases including SQL and Oracle as well as connect real time to the internet, LAN and Wan networks in order to produce real time index values in accordance with state of the art technology and the modern theory of applied financial economics.

- Index-Pro was designed and developed by a team of renowned investment professionals, software engineers and networking specialists.
- Index-Pro is a cost effective business enabling solution. Marketing and financial research prove that return on investment from the procurement of such tool is much higher than average ROI of numerous other software solutions.
- Index-Pro leads an institutional User to produce the most elevated standards of professional reporting any financial institution yearns to achieve. Thus, attracting higher scores of interested clients.
- Index-Pro is a user friendly bilingual solution that clarifies the theory and mathematical models of index construction, maintenance and necessary adjustments needed to maintain a proper index or multiple indexes thereof.
- Index-Pro takes into account corporate actions in an automated form such as divided pay out, bonus share, capital restructuring among others.
- Index-Pro can be offered as a stand alone system. It can be integrated and interfaced with other solutions and systems existing in a client's technological infrastructure.